

Confidentiality and Use of Data

In line with EU GDPR law, all application data has been treated as confidential throughout the judging and shortlisting process by everyone involved.

Conflict of interest

All applications are anonymised for the judging process and judges take conflict of interest very seriously to ensure the integrity of the process, including signing relevant agreements. If a judge recognises an applicant, they are required to state any conflict of interest immediately. Any judge disclosing a conflict of interest is excluded from assessing the specific application and scores are provided by other members of the judging panel only.

Jury panel

Cédric Fauq, Chief Curator – Capc musée d'art contemporain, Bordeaux

Since September 2021, Cédric Fauq serves as chief curator at Capc musée d'art contemporain de Bordeaux. He previously worked at Palais de Tokyo in Paris and Nottingham Contemporary in the UK. He completed an MA Curating Contemporary Art at the Royal College of Art in London. Recently, he acted as a juror for the Turner Prize 2023 and was designated "Promesses de 2023" by Le Monde.

Sarah Price – Digital Communication Manager, FNTV

With over a decade of professional experience, working in a range of sectors, such as Higher Education, Facility management and Non-profit organisations, Sarah Price is an accomplished communications manager based in France. Recognised for her expertise in digital and institutional communications, Sarah has successfully crafted and implemented communication strategies for diverse clients, showcasing a forward-thinking approach to digital storytelling. Beyond her professional endeavours, Sarah is a passionate advocate for sustainability, always seeking opportunities to bring awareness to pressing environmental concerns such as climate change, pollution, or biodiversity loss. She has been a long-standing member of UKAN France, helping to create a UK alumni community in France, with the support of the British Council France, through the organisation of professional and social events, with the aim of promoting UK higher education.

Alex Tucker – Head of Campaigns & Partnerships, GREAT

Alex is Head of Campaigns & Partnerships at the GREAT Britain & Northern Ireland campaign, the UK's international promotion programme. In this role he is responsible for delivering GREAT activity in priority markets, including the current 'Audacious Kingdom' campaign in France, and overseeing partnerships with major UK brands such as the Premier League and Aston Martin. Prior to this, Alex worked in external relations at Chatham House, The Royal Institute of International Affairs, engaging multinational companies, NGOs and international governments.